GREAT -- Thanks for these -- I am going to dig into them tomorrow and see what I can do --
Want to REST my elbow :)

On Sysco -- This is what Highrise shows:

SYSCO Corporation

Follow Up Package "Friendly" Mailed July 7, 2010 Initial Package Mailed May 7, 2010 On

Notice of '951 Presentation Given

I see where there was a lot of back and forth and then NADA...

These are good except for:

- Remove Western Power Sports -- DJ risk
- Remove Scentsy -- looks fairly litigious so hold for now and let's revisit later
- Remove Sysco Spokane -- We licensed Sysco Corp. years ago with Jeffer Mangels, and I believe the website you refer to is theirs. Sysco Spokane may be a different company but I don't think they have website do they?
- Remove Vital Proteins -- DJ risk
- Remove Scuf Gaming -- hold for now, I'd like to get the NOW Organics license finished up because they are both repped by Holland & Knight. But we can return to them after NOW Organics is done. I will prompt John to check on them.

PRIORITIZE: prioritize Jiffyshirts, Avenue Stores, and Andis Company for mailing, as I believe they might be fast-settlers.

*BORDERLINES: America's Gardening has copyright/trademark counsel but ok to mail; Foodscience was sued for patent infringement but ok to mail; Robert Graham has been sued for patent infringement but ok to mail; Hubbardton sued as a patent plaintiff but ok to mail.
